(2) A person whose name appears in a copy of the provisional list or part of it may object to another person whose name also appears in the provisional list as not being entitled to be registered as a voter, and shall, during the period of the exhibition of the copy or part of it under section 28, give notice of his objection to the Electoral Commission in Form F in the Second Schedule, and to the person objected to, in Form G of the Second Schedule, giving reasons for his objection.

(3) Within five days of the expiry of the exhibition referred to in subsections (1) and (2), the Electoral Commission shall cause to be prepared and exhibited, in a place where a copy of the provisional list or part of the list has been exhibited under section 28, a statement of all claims and objections in respect of the copy or part of the list, giving the names of the persons who have made the claims or the objections.

(4) A person who knowingly causes his name to be included in a copy of a provisional list while not entitled to be registered or a Registration Officer who knowingly includes the name of a person who is not entitled to be registered commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction, to a fine of five hundred thousand leones or to imprisonment for a term of two years.

31. (1) A public inquiry shall be held for each ward by the Revising Officer for that ward for the purpose of revising the provisional list for the ward. Revision inquiries.

(2) The inquiry shall be held on a day being within eight days after the publication of the list of claims and objections referred to in subsection (3) of section 30, as may be fixed by the Revising Officer, and five days' notice of the holding of the inquiry and of the place and time at which the inquiry is to be held shall be given in such manner as the Revising Officer may consider appropriate.

32. (1) Upon the production at an inquiry by the Registration Officer of the provisional lists for the ward and statement of claims and objections relating to the list, the Revising Officer shall go through the lists and shall insert in any list the name of every person who is proved to his satisfaction to be entitled to have his name inserted in the list and shall strike out of the list the name of every person who, upon the application of an objector or of the Registration Officer, is proved to the satisfaction of the Revising Officer not to be entitled to have his name retained in the list or to be dead. Procedures of revision.

(2) If an objector, other than the Registration Officer, appears neither in person nor by counsel, the objection shall be overruled and the name of the person objected to shall be retained as a voter in the provisional list.

Powers of Revising Officer.

33. (1) The Revising Officer holding an inquiry under this Part may require any of the parties present to give information in his possession which the Revising Officer may require for the purposes of his duties and may, subject to section 37, adjourn the inquiry to such time and as often as may be necessary.

(2) The Revising Officer shall, in public, determine all claims and objections and shall write his initials against any name struck out of a provisional list or inserted in it, or against a mistake or omission corrected, and shall sign his name to every page of the provisional list when the list is finally settled.

(3) If the Revising Officer is of the opinion that the claim or objection of a person is without foundation or is frivolous, he may order the person to pay the actual costs of the inquiry, including the cost of witnesses; and the costs shall be recoverable by the Commission in a suit before a court.

Grounds of appeal.

34. No appeal or notice of appeal shall be received or allowed against the decision of the Revising Officer upon any question of fact or upon the admissibility or effect of any evidence or admission adduced or, as the case may be, made in a case to establish a matter of fact only.

Procedure on appeal.

35. (1) A person—

- (a) whose claim to have his name inserted in a provisional list has been disallowed;
- (b) who has made an objection to another person as not being entitled to have his name inserted in a provisional list;
- (c) whose name has been struck out from a provisional list; or
- (d) who has made an objection to another person as not being entitled to have his name inserted in a provisional list, and is dissatisfied with a decision of the Revising Officer on a point of law material to the result of his case, may, either in person or by counsel, deliver to the Registration Officer within seven days after the decision of the Revising Officer was given, a note in writing of his desire to appeal to the High Court by way of a case stated and such notice shall contain a short statement of the decision against which he desires to appeal.

(2) The Registration Officer shall forthwith forward the notice of appeal to the Revising Officer.

(3) The Revising Officer shall upon receiving the notice of appeal referred to in subsection (1), state in writing the facts which in his judgement have been established by the evidence in the case, and which are material to the matter in question and his decision upon the whole case, and also his decision upon any point of law appealed against, and shall sign and date the statement.

(4) The Master and Registrar of the High Court, after receiving a case stated under subsection (3) from the Revising Officer, shall file the case in the High Court and shall forthwith set down the appeal for hearing and give seven clear days' notice of the date of hearing of the appeal to the appellant and respondent, (if any).

(5) When the High Court has determined an appeal, the Master and Registrar of the High Court shall forward forthwith to the Revising Officer a statement under his hand of the decision of the High Court.

(6) Where by a decision of the High Court a decision of the Revising Officer is reversed or altered so as to require an alteration or correction in a provisional list of the Register of Voters, the Revising Officer shall forthwith alter or correct the list accordingly and shall sign his name after the words "altered (or corrected) on Order of the High Court dated the.....day of20....." which he shall write against every alteration or correction on the provisional list.

36. The right to vote of a person whose name is for the time being on a Register of Voters shall not be prejudiced by an appeal pending under section 35, and a vote given at an election in pursuance of that right, shall be as good as if no appeal were pending and shall not be affected by the subsequent decision of the appeal.

Right to vote
not affected
by pending
appeal.

Settlement of lists.

37. The provisional lists in respect of a ward shall be finally settled and signed by the Revising Officer and the provisional lists shall be delivered by him to the Registration Officer within five days from the date on which the Revising Officer first commenced to hold his inquiry and to revise the lists.

Revision of Register.

38. (1) Upon delivery to him of the list as revised by the Revising Officer, the Registration Officer shall, within the period that the Electoral Commission may by Government Notice direct, cause the revised list to be kept, ward by ward, in the Register of Voters, beginning with every name in each ward and continuing in regular series to the last name in each ward.

(2) A change of name, if provided to the satisfaction of the Returning Officer, shall not affect the right of a person to vote under the name in which he is registered.

Returns of deaths.

39. The Chief Administrator of a local council shall not later than 31st January in every year, send to the Electoral Commission a return certified by him under his hand of the names, addresses and any other information as the Commission may require, of all persons over the age of seventeen years who have died within the locality in the previous year.

Transfer of registered voter.

40. (1) Where a voter who is registered in one ward becomes ordinarily resident in another ward, he may apply to the Registration Officer of the ward in which he currently resides for his name to be transferred to the Register of Voters for that ward.

(2) If the Registration Officer is satisfied that the applicant is qualified for registration and is ordinarily resident in the ward in relation to which the application is made, and on the surrender by the applicant of his voter registration card, the Registration Officer shall-

- (a) register the applicant in the Voter Register for the ward in which the applicant is now ordinarily resident;

(b) cause the name of the applicant to be deleted from the Register for the ward in which the applicant was previously resident; and

(c) issue to the applicant a new voter registration card for the ward in which the applicant is now ordinarily resident.

41. (1) Where a voter loses a voter registration card or where a voter registration card is destroyed, defaced, torn or otherwise damaged, the voter concerned shall, not less than 21 days before the date of an election apply to the Registration Officer for the ward in which he is ordinarily resident, stating the circumstances of the loss, destruction, defacement or damage, as the case may be.

Loss or destruction of voter registration card.

(2) If the Registration Officer is satisfied as to the circumstances of the loss, destruction or defacement of, or damage to, the voter registration card, he shall issue to the applicant a copy of the Voter Registration Card with the word "DUPLICATE" clearly printed on it and showing the date of issue.

(3) In the case of defacement of or damage to a voter registration card, the Registration Officer shall immediately cancel the voter registration card surrendered by the voter.

(4) No person shall issue a duplicate voter registration card to a voter on polling day or less than 14 days before polling day.

(5) A person who contravenes subsection (4) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not less than five million leones or to imprisonment for a term not less than one year.

42. The proprietary rights in a voter registration card issued by the Electoral Commission shall vest in the Electoral Commission.

(2) The voting at a polling station shall not be closed until all the registered voters present inside the polling station or waiting in line outside the polling station at the time specified in subsection (1) have cast their vote.

(3) Part VII shall, with the necessary modifications, apply to the voting in a presidential election.

Declaration of election result.

52. (1) After the expiration of the time fixed for polling, the votes shall be counted, polling station by polling station and each Presiding Officer shall as soon as possible after the votes have been counted, certify, through the regional offices of the Electoral Commission, to the Returning Officer, the result of the counting, stating the number of valid votes cast in favour of each presidential candidate.

(2) As soon as possible after receipt of the result of the counting of votes under subsection (1), the Returning Officer shall tally and compute the results certified to him by the various Presiding Officers and shall after that declare the result of the election.

Certification of election and publication of result.

53. The Returning Officer shall, after declaring the result of a presidential election—

- (a) subject to paragraph (e) and (f) of subsection (2) of section 42 of the Constitution, issue to the successful candidate a certificate of election in the form prescribed in the Fifth Schedule; and
- (b) as soon as possible, cause the result of the election to be published by Government Notice and in any other manner that the Returning Officer may think fit.

Assumption of office by elected candidate.

54. (1) A person elected to the office of President shall, subject to subsection (2), assume that office on the date upon which he is declared elected by the Returning Officer or upon the date that his predecessor's term of office expires, whichever is the later.

(2) Before assuming office, the President shall take and subscribe the oath for the due execution of his office, set out in the Second Schedule to the Constitution.

55. (1) A person who is a citizen of Sierra Leone and has lawfully voted may in a presidential election challenge the validity of that election by petition to the Supreme Court within seven days after the declaration of the result of a presidential election under subsection (2) of section 52.

Challenge of election of President.

(2) A declaration by the Supreme Court that the election of the President is not valid shall not prejudice anything done by the President before the declaration.

PART VI—GENERAL ELECTION OF MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT

56. Members of Parliament shall comprise—

Composition of Parliament.

(a) the twelve Paramount Chief members referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 74 of the Constitution; and

(b) one hundred and twelve ordinary members.

57. The time for a general election of the ordinary members of Parliament shall be appointed by proclamation made by the President after consultation with the Electoral Commission.

Time for parliamentary elections.

58. A general election of ordinary members of Parliament shall be by the one-member constituency system under subsection (2) of section 38 of the Constitution.

Form of general elections.

59. When a time is appointed for a general election under section 57, the Electoral Commission shall, by Government Notice, require that nominations of candidates be delivered to the Electoral Commission or the Returning Officer designated by the Commission before four o'clock in the afternoon of the day specified in the Government Notice, which shall not be more than sixty and not less than thirty days before the day appointed for voting in the elections.

Time for nomination of candidates.

Nomination of candidates.

60. (1) Every candidate shall be nominated in writing by three voters of the electoral area for which he intends to contest an election and no candidate may be nominated for more than one electoral area.

(2) The nomination shall be as prescribed in the Sixth Schedule and shall be subscribed by the candidate and the persons nominating him.

(3) A Returning Officer shall provide nomination papers and shall supply a voter with the number of nomination papers that he may reasonably require and shall, at the request of a voter, the candidate and all his nominators being present, complete the nomination on the voter's behalf.

(4) Each candidate, or one of the persons nominating him, shall deliver his nomination paper, subscribed in accordance with subsection (3), at the office of the Returning Officer before four o'clock in the afternoon of the last day for the delivery of nomination papers.

(5) Every candidate shall pay to the Returning Officer a non-refundable nomination fee of the prescribed amount and the nomination shall not be valid until the nomination fee has been paid.

(6) On the delivery of the nomination paper of a candidate together with the prescribed nomination fee, the Returning Officer for the electoral area shall forthwith acknowledge receipt of the nomination paper and nomination fee.

(7) When the requirements concerning the completion and delivery of nomination papers have been duly completed, the Returning Officer shall forthwith publish by displaying in a conspicuous manner at the place of receipt of the nomination, a notice containing the name of the candidate and the names of the voters nominating him, the political party of the candidate as applicable, and the symbol of the candidate.

(8) Nomination fees received by the Electoral Commission shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund and shall not be refunded.

61. (1) Each political party shall deliver to the Electoral Commission or as the case may be, to the designated Returning Officer a list of that party's endorsed candidates for the election of ordinary members of Parliament.

- (a) each candidate has accepted his nomination in writing;
- (b) every candidate on the list is qualified to be elected as an ordinary member of Parliament under section 75 of the Constitution; and
- (c) no candidate on the list is disqualified for election as a member of Parliament under section 76 of the Constitution.

63. (1) A voter of the electoral area in which a candidate intends to contest an election may at any time up to five o'clock in the afternoon of the last appointed day for the receipt of nominations, object to the nomination of that candidate on any of the grounds set out in subsection (2), and the Returning Officer shall decide on the validity of the objection.

Objections to nominations.

(2) The Returning Officer shall be entitled to hold a nomination paper invalid only on one or more of the following grounds:—

- (a) that the particulars of the candidate or his nominators are not as required by law;
- (b) that the paper is not subscribed as so required;
- (c) that any one of the nominators is not a voter;
- (d) that the candidate has not paid the nomination fee;
- (e) that the candidate is a person disqualified from being a member of Parliament under section 76 of the Constitution.

(3) The Returning Officer shall give his decision on an objection to a nomination paper as soon as practicable after it is made, but in any event before six o'clock in the afternoon of the last day appointed for the receipt of nominations.

(4) Where the Returning Officer decides that a nomination paper is invalid, he shall endorse and sign on the paper the fact and the reasons for the decision.

(5) A candidate aggrieved by the decision of the Returning Officer as to the validity or otherwise of a nomination paper may appeal to the Electoral Commission, which may uphold the decision of the Returning Officer or reverse it.

(6) The decision of the Returning Officer or, in the case of an appeal, the Electoral Commission, on the validity of a nomination shall be final and shall not be questioned in any proceeding whatsoever, except by way of an election petition.

Withdrawal of candidate.

64. A candidate may withdraw his nomination by notice in writing signed by him and endorsed by the political party to which he belongs, and delivered by him to the Returning Officer.

- (a) the notice of withdrawal shall take effect in the order in which it is delivered; and
- (b) no notice shall have effect if it would result in there being no candidate in respect of a vacancy in an electoral area.

65. If when a nominated candidate withdraws his candidature under section 64- Action to be taken on withdrawal.

- (a) the number of persons remaining nominated exceeds the number of vacancies, a poll shall be taken in accordance with this Act;
- (b) the number of persons remaining nominated is the same as the number of vacancies, the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare the person or persons to be duly elected;
- (c) no person is or remains nominated, or the number of persons remaining nominated is less than the number of vacancies, the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare the persons remaining nominated to be duly elected and shall forthwith notify the Electoral Commission who shall by Government Notice appoint some other convenient day for the election to fill any vacancy which remains unfilled and all proceedings with reference to the election to fill the vacancy shall commence afresh.

66. (1) If, after the date appointed for the receipt of nominations one of the candidates nominated for election in an electoral area dies before the poll has commenced, the Returning Officer shall, upon being satisfied of the fact of the death, countermand the notice of the poll and shall forthwith report the fact to the Electoral Commission. Death of candidate.

(2) In the event referred to in subsection (1), the Electoral Commission shall appoint some other convenient day or days for the election and all proceedings with reference to the election shall commence afresh; but no fresh nomination shall be necessary in the case of a candidate who stood nominated at the time when the notice of poll was countermanded.

Final list of candidates to be published by Commission.

67. Not later than ten days before the first day appointed for the election, the Returning Officer shall cause to be published by Government Notice, and in any other manner within every electoral area as he may think appropriate, a list containing the full names, addresses and occupations of the candidates and of the persons or political parties by whom they were nominated.

Contested election and unopposed candidates.

68. If by six o'clock in the afternoon of the last day appointed for the receipt of nominations—

- (a) the number of persons remaining nominated exceeds the number of vacancies, a poll shall be taken and the result shall be declared in accordance with this Act;
- (b) the number of persons remaining nominated is the same as the number of vacancies, the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare the person or persons to be duly elected;
- (c) no person is or remains nominated, or if the number of persons remaining nominated is less than the number of vacancies, the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare the persons remaining nominated to be duly elected and shall forthwith notify the Electoral Commission who shall by Government Notice appoint some other convenient day for the election to fill a vacancy which remains unfilled and all proceedings with reference to the election to fill the vacancy shall commence afresh.

PART VII—PROCEDURES AND ARRANGEMENTS FOR ELECTIONS

69. (1) In conducting an election under this Act, the Chairman of the Electoral Commission shall be the National Returning Officer.

National Returning Officer.

(2) The Electoral Commission shall appoint—

- (a) four other Returning Officers to be known as Regional Returning Officers for each of the four electoral regions into which Sierra Leone is divided;
- (b) fourteen District Returning Officers; and
- (c) such number of Assistant Returning Officers as may be required.

70. (1) The Electoral Commission shall be responsible for the conduct of elections under this Act and shall make arrangements for the casting of ballots by voters.

Conduct of elections by Electoral Commission.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Electoral Commission shall—

- (a) provide the number of polling stations that may be required in each electoral area and allot the voters within each electoral area to the polling stations in such manner as it thinks most convenient;
- (b) not later than fifteen days before the day of election, give notice where practicable, in the Government Notice referred to in section 67, specifying—
 - (i) the day and hours fixed for voting;
 - (ii) the full name, address and occupation of each candidate in the final list of candidates as determined by the

- Electoral Commission together with a description of the symbol which the Electoral Commission has accepted for each political party or candidate in another election being held on the same day;
- (c) indicate the situation of the polling station or stations and the persons entitled to vote at those stations;
- (d) appoint a fit and proper person, other than a candidate for election, to be—
- (i) the Presiding Officer who shall be in charge of the polling station; and
 - (ii) Polling Assistants under the direction of the Presiding Officer;
- (e) provide each Presiding Officer with ballot boxes for each polling station in the electoral area and the number of ballot papers that in the opinion of the Presiding Officer may be necessary;
- (f) provide the Presiding Officer at each polling station with instruments for making an official mark on the ballot papers;
- (g) provide the Presiding Officer at each polling station with copies of the Register of Voters or a part of the register that contains the names of the persons allotted to vote at that polling station;
- (h) cause to be published in each polling station the names of the candidates for whom a vote can be cast at that polling station together with the individual or party symbols of those candidates; and

- (i) do such other things as may be necessary for conducting the election in the manner provided in this Act.

(3) During an election, the arrangements under this section and other acts relating to the electoral process generally shall be subject to verification and monitoring but only by observers accredited by the Electoral Commission.

71. (1) Each political party or independent candidate ^{Polling agents.} contesting the election may appoint two persons (hereinafter referred to as “polling agents”) to attend at each polling station within the electoral area, for the purpose of—

- (a) detecting personation and making representations to the Presiding Officer under paragraph (c) of section 74 and subsection (1) of section 79; and
- (b) generally for the purpose of drawing the attention of the Presiding Officer to irregularities in the procedure at a polling station.

(2) Notice in writing of the appointment, stating the names and addresses of the polling agents, together with the polling stations to which they have been assigned, shall be given by each political party or independent candidate, as the case may be, to the District Returning Officer not later than three days before the day appointed for the election and before four o’clock in the afternoon of that day, and the District Returning Officer shall inform the Presiding Officer accordingly.

(3) If a polling agent dies or becomes incapable of acting as such, the political party or independent candidate concerned may appoint another polling agent in his place and shall give to the Presiding Officer due notice in writing of the name and address of the polling agent so appointed.

(4) No polling agent shall be admitted into a polling station if notice of his appointment has not been given to the Presiding Officer.

(5) A polling agent admitted to a polling station shall not—

- (a) interfere with the voting at that station, except as provided in this Act;
- (b) do the canvassing at the polling station or display anything which indicates that he is a representative of a particular political party or candidate, and the polling agent shall be obliged to display the identification as is determined by the Electoral Commission.

Precautions to ensure secrecy.

72. (1) Every ballot box shall be so constructed that the ballot papers can be put in it by the voter but cannot be withdrawn by him.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall cause to be placed at each polling station ballot boxes in which shall be deposited the ballot papers of the voters.

(3) Immediately before the commencement of voting, the Presiding Officer at each polling station shall—

- (a) show each ballot box empty to observers (if any) and to any other persons lawfully present so that they may see that the boxes are empty;
- (b) in the presence of such persons, close and place distinctive seals upon each ballot box in such a manner as to prevent the ballot box from being opened without breaking the seal; and
- (c) keep the ballot boxes so closed and sealed until the voting is completed and counting is about to commence.

(4) The Presiding Officer shall place the ballot boxes, in full view of the Presiding Officer, Polling Assistants, polling agents, observers (if any), and any other persons authorised to be present in the polling station throughout the voting time.

73. (1) The hours of voting shall be from seven o'clock in the morning to five o'clock in the afternoon or such later time as the Electoral Commission may allow. Hours of voting.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall not declare the poll closed until all the registered voters present inside the polling station or waiting in line outside the polling station at the time specified in subsection (1) have cast their vote.

74. (1) The voting at an election shall be conducted in the following manner:— Manner of voting.

- (a) every voter desiring to record his vote shall present himself to the Presiding Officer or a Polling Assistant at the polling station at which he is entitled to vote and the Presiding Officer or Polling Assistant, after satisfying himself that—
 - (i) the name of the voter appears in the copy of the Register of Voters, or part of the register of voters provided for that polling station and that the voter is the same person whose picture, if any, is on the voter registration card presented by the voter; and
 - (ii) the voter has not already voted having regard to subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b);

the Presiding Officer or Polling Assistant shall deliver to him a ballot paper; but where a number of public elections are held on the same day the ballot papers shall be differentiated by such colours as the Electoral Commission shall determine and shall be cast separately for each election held on the day in question;

- (b) immediately before the Presiding Officer or Polling Assistant delivers a ballot paper to a voter, he shall—
- (i) call out the voter's serial ward number and his name and address as stated in the Register of Voters and examine the voter's registration card issued by the Electoral Commission and mark the card in the manner prescribed by the Electoral Commission;
 - (ii) examine the voter's left hand for traces of the ink (if any) referred to in paragraph (e), and if he is satisfied that there are such traces he shall not deliver any ballot paper to that voter;
 - (iii) mark the ballot paper or papers with an official mark which may be prescribed by the Electoral Commission;
 - (iv) place a mark against the number of the copy of the Register of Voters to denote that a ballot paper or papers have been delivered;
- (c) a Polling Assistant may, and, if required by a polling agent, shall put to any persons applying for a ballot paper or papers at the time of his application, but not afterwards, the following questions or any of them:—
- (i) "Are you the person whose name is on the Register of Voters as (reading the entry in the Register)";
 - (ii) "Have you already voted at the present election at this or any other polling station?";

- (d) no person who is required by the Polling Assistant to answer these questions, or either of them, shall be provided with a ballot paper or be allowed to vote until he has answered the question or questions to the satisfaction of the Presiding Officer;
- (e) every voter shall, immediately before receiving a ballot paper, submit to having his left thumb or a finger of the left hand, or right hand if an elector suffers from physical defect, marked with indelible ink; but this paragraph shall not apply in the case of a voter who suffers from a physical defect which in the opinion of the Presiding Officer, makes this application impractical;
- (f) the voter shall then go alone to the booth or enclosure which shall be placed in open view of the public but in a manner which will conceal the identity of the candidate he voted for, put his mark against the symbol of the candidate or as the case may be, the party of his choice secretly, and then come out of the booth or enclosure with his ballot paper folded which he will then cast in full view of everyone present;
- (g) if a voter—
 - (i) spoils any ballot paper inadvertently; or
 - (ii) mistakenly marks a ballot paper for a candidate who is not of his choice;

the voter shall return the ballot paper to the Presiding Officer, who shall, if he is satisfied that the circumstances described in subparagraphs (i) and (ii) have occurred, provide the voter with another ballot paper and the Presiding Officer shall write the word "CANCELLED" across the face of the spoiled ballot paper which shall be kept separately and shall be delivered to the Returning Officer as provided by this Act;

- (h) if a voter places any writing or mark on the ballot paper by which he may be identified, the Presiding Officer shall write the word "CANCELLED" across the face of the ballot paper which shall be kept separately and shall be delivered to the Returning Officer as provided in this Act; and
- (i) a voter who is unable to read or who is incapacitated by blindness or any other physical disability and is unable to cast his vote in the manner prescribed in this Act, shall apply in person to the Presiding Officer, who shall—
- (i) in the case of a voter who is physically disabled, allow the voter to be accompanied by another voter of his own choice, who shall guarantee the faithful expression of the vote of the disabled person and who shall pledge absolute secrecy;
- (ii) in the case of a voter who is unable to read or write and cannot draw a cross, inform the voter that he can vote by putting a fingerprint mark in the square corresponding to the candidate for whom he wishes to vote after dipping his finger in the ink which shall be placed for this purpose in the voting booth.

(2) Notwithstanding subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of subsection (1), a voter who is likely to be unable to go in person to the polling station at which he is entitled to vote by reason of—

- (a) being on official duties in connection with the election; or
- (b) being a public officer or employee of a public corporation or commercial firm or mining company or member of the Sierra Leone Police Force or the Armed Forces of the Republic of Sierra Leone who is transferred by his employer or supervisor to a place of employment in a ward other than the one in which he is registered, may, not later than fifteen days before the day appointed for voting, make an application to the Returning Officer of his electoral area for a certificate of authorisation in a form approved by the Electoral Commission to authorise a Presiding Officer in a polling station other than the one at which the applicant is entitled to vote, to permit him to cast his vote in that polling station.

(3) Before issuing a certificate of authorisation under subsection (2), the Returning Officer shall satisfy himself that the application is well founded and supported by the written confirmation of the employer or supervisor of the applicant and shall delete the applicant's name from the Register of Voters of the polling station at which he is entitled to vote and initial the deletion.

(4) A voter who has been issued with a certificate of authorisation referred to in subsection (2) shall present the certificate of authorisation to a Presiding Officer of a polling station other than the polling station at which he is entitled to vote and the Presiding Officer after satisfying himself as to the authenticity of the certificate of authorisation, shall permit the voter to vote in accordance with the directions contained therein.

(5) A person who makes a false answer to any of the questions prescribed in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) which he knows to be false or does not believe to be true, commits an offence and is liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not less than five million leones or to imprisonment for a term of two years.

75. Every ballot paper shall have a number printed on it and shall be attached to a counterfoil bearing the same number as is printed on the ballot paper. Numbering of ballot papers.

76. Every voter shall vote without undue delay and shall leave the polling station as soon as he has put his ballot paper in the ballot box. Voting to be without delay.

Admission of persons to polling stations.

77. (1) Subject to this Act, no person shall be permitted to vote at a polling station other than the polling station at which he is entitled to vote under to paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 74.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall regulate the admission of voters to the polling station, and shall exclude all other persons except polling agents, polling assistants, constables on duty, observers (if any), and any other person who under this Act has lawful reason to be admitted to the polling station.

(3) Every voter present in a polling station shall comply with any direction of the Presiding Officer for regulating the casting of votes and generally shall conduct himself in an orderly manner.

Restriction on admission to polling stations.

78. (1) No person shall carry, wear or display any dangerous weapon or missile in any part of a polling station otherwise than in pursuance of a lawful duty.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not less than one million Leones or to imprisonment for a term of two years.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (1), a person shall be deemed to be acting in pursuance of a lawful duty if he is acting in his capacity as a military or police personnel, officially deployed to provide security at that polling station or generally charged with responsibility for providing security during elections.

Prevention of personation.

79. (1) If at the time a person applies for a ballot paper or after he has so applied and before he has left the polling station, a polling agent declares to the Presiding Officer that he has reasonable cause to believe that the applicant has committed the offence of personation and undertakes to substantiate the charge in a court, or if the Presiding Officer has reasonable cause to believe that an applicant for a ballot paper has committed the offence of personation, the person may be charged with the offence of personation.

(2) A person in respect of whom a polling agent makes a declaration in accordance with subsection (1) or who the Presiding Officer has reasonable cause to believe has committed the offence of personation shall not, by reason, be prevented from voting, but the Presiding Officer shall cause the words “protested against for personation” to be placed against his name in the marked copy of the Register of Voters or part of the Register of Voters; but where a person in respect of whom a declaration is made admits to the Presiding Officer that he is not the person he held himself out to be, he shall not be permitted to vote if he has not already done so.

80. (1) The Presiding Officer shall keep order in the polling station. Conduct in polling stations.

(2) If a person misconducts himself in a polling station or fails to obey a lawful order of the Presiding Officer, the person may, on the order of the Presiding Officer, be removed from the polling station by a constable, or by any other person authorised in writing by the Presiding Officer in that behalf; and the person so removed shall not, without the permission of the Presiding Officer, again enter the polling station during the day of the election.

(3) A person so removed may be charged with the commission of an offence.

(4) Subsection (2) shall not be used so as to prevent a person who is otherwise entitled to vote at a polling station from having an opportunity to vote.

81. (1) On the day appointed for an election under section 57, the Presiding Officer at each polling station shall, at the expiration of the hours of voting prescribed under section 73, close the polling station and cease to receive any votes and shall as soon as is practicable, in the presence of any polling agents or observers in attendance, make up into separate packets, each sealed with his own seal— Sealing of ballot boxes.

(a) the ballot boxes in use at the polling station, unopened and sealed, so as to prevent the introduction of additional ballot papers;

(b) a certificate he has received under subsection (2) of section 74;

(c) the unused and spoilt ballot papers, placed together;

(d) the marked copies or part of the Register of Voters; and

(e) the counterfoils of the used ballot papers, and shall arrange for the counting of votes at the polling station.

(2) The packets made up under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by a statement to be called “the Ballot Papers Account”, which shall be in Form A of the Seventh Schedule, prepared by the Presiding Officer, showing the number of ballot papers entrusted to him and accounting for them under the following heads:—

(a) number of unused ballot papers;

(b) number of spoilt ballot papers; and

(c) number of persons marked on the Register of Voters as having been issued with ballot papers.

Counting agents.

82. (1) For the purpose of the counting of the votes under section 84, each candidate or, as the case may be, each political party contesting the election shall appoint one person, referred to as the “counting agent”, for each polling station to attend at the counting of the votes.

(2) Notice in writing of the appointment, stating the name and address of the counting agent, shall be given by the candidate or political party concerned, to the District Returning Officer not later than three days before the day of the election and the District Returning Officer shall forward the notice to the Presiding Officer.

(3) The Presiding Officer may refuse to admit to the place where the votes are counted a person purporting to be a counting agent but in respect of whom the notice referred to in subsection (2) has not been given.

(4) If a counting agent dies or becomes incapable of acting as such, the candidate or political party concerned shall appoint another counting agent in his place and shall immediately give to the District Returning Officer notice in writing of the name and address of the counting agent so appointed.

83. Except with the consent of the District Returning Officer, no person other than the Counting Officer, Counting Assistant, polling staff, counting agents and observers (if any), may be present at the counting of votes.

Persons who may be present at counting of votes.

84. As soon as is practicable after the Presiding Officer has declared the polls closed in accordance with subsection (2) of section 73 and has complied with section 81, he shall, in his capacity as Counting Officer, in the presence of the persons referred to in section 83—

Counting of votes.

(a) open each ballot box;

(b) take out the ballot papers;

(c) separate the ballot papers cast in respect of the election of members of Parliament from those cast for the election of a President, as the case may be;

(d) in accordance with section 85 and 86, count the votes separately for each election if more than one is held on the same day; and

(e) ensure that the ballot papers for the candidates and those for any other election held on the same day are kept separate.

85. (1) At the counting of votes a ballot paper—

Void ballots.

(a) which bears a number or mark or variation indicating that it was issued for use at a polling station other than that at which it was used to vote;

(b) not bearing an official mark (if the mark has been prescribed by the Electoral Commission);

(c) on which anything is written or marked by which the voter may be identified (other than a fingerprint);

- (d) on which is cast votes for more than one candidate;
- (e) which is unmarked or on which it is impossible to determine with certainty for which candidate the ballot was cast; or
- (f) which bears a number or mark or variation indicating that it was not issued by the Electoral Commission, shall not be counted.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), the Counting Officer shall not reject but shall count a ballot paper on which there is a mark or writing by means of which a voter has clearly indicated his choice otherwise than by a cross or fingerprint on the ballot paper concerned.

(3) Where in the opinion of the Counting Officer, a ballot box has been evidently tampered with before the completion of counting of votes, the ballot papers contained in that box shall not be counted.

Rejection of void ballot papers.

86. The Counting Officer shall endorse the word “Rejected” on a ballot paper which, under section 85, is not counted and shall add the words “Rejection objected to” if an objection to his decision is made by a counting agent.

Over voting.

87. (1) Where the votes cast at an election at a polling station exceed the number of registered voters in that polling station, the result of the election for that polling station shall be declared null and void by the Electoral Commission and another election may be conducted at a date to be fixed by the Commission, where the result at that polling station may affect the overall result in the electoral area, in the case of parliamentary or local council elections.

(2) Where the votes cast at a Presidential election at a polling station exceed the number of registered voters in that polling station, the result of the election for that polling station shall be declared null and void by the Electoral Commission and another election may be conducted at a date to be fixed by the Commission where the result at that polling station may affect the overall result in the election.

(3) Where an election result is nullified in accordance with subsection (1) or (2), there shall be no return for the election until another poll has taken place in the affected electoral area.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), the Electoral Commission may, if satisfied that the result of the election will not be affected by voting in the area where the election result is nullified, direct that a return of the election be made.

88. The decision of the Counting Officer as to any question arising in respect of any ballot paper shall be final and subject to review only on an election petition questioning the election.

Counting Officer’s decision to be final.

89. (1) A counting agent may, if present when the counting or a re-count of the votes is completed, require the Counting Officer to have the votes recounted or again recounted; but the Counting Officer may refuse to do so if, in his opinion, the request is unreasonable.

Re-count.

(2) No steps shall be taken on the completion of the counting or a re-count of votes until the counting agents present at the completion of the counting have been given a reasonable opportunity to exercise the right conferred by this section.

(3) A counting agent may, in addition to the recount which he may request of a counting officer under subsection (1), request another recount at the office of the District Returning Officer.

90. (1) Upon the conclusion of the counting of votes, the Counting Officer shall seal in separate packets the ballot papers counted and those rejected, the ballot papers for each constituency candidate or candidate in any other election held the same day, being kept separate from those of any other candidate; and each packet shall be endorsed on the outside by the Counting Officer with the name of the constituency candidate or other candidate, or as the case may be, with the name of the candidate in any other election held the same day for whom the votes represented by the ballot papers were cast.

Counting Officer’s duties at conclusion of counting.

(2) The Counting Officer shall prepare a statement of the result of the poll which shall be in the form prescribed in the Eighth Schedule and shall certify a sufficient number of copies for distribution to—

- (a) the National Returning Officer;
- (b) each Regional Returning Officer;
- (c) the District Returning Officer;
- (d) each counting agent of a candidate or political party present at the poll;
- (e) himself.

(3) The copy of the statement of the result of the poll which is intended for the National Returning Officer shall be dispatched by a means other than that by which the copy to the District Returning Officer was dispatched.

(4) The Counting Officer shall then place the sealed envelopes with the counted ballots, the rejected ballots and other election documents as may be decided upon by the Electoral Commission, into the ballot box, and shall lock the ballot box and fix his seal to it and invite the other polling station officials and counting agents who may be present to affix their own seals on the ballot box.

Delivery of sealed ballot boxes and election equipment to District Returning Officer.

91. (1) After the counting of the votes at the polling station, the Counting Officer shall forward the ballot boxes sealed in the manner stated in subsection (4) of section 90 and all other documents and equipment used in the election to the District Returning Officer.

(2) In dispatching the ballot box referred to in subsection (1), the Counting Officer shall fix outside the ballot box, in a separate envelope, the following:—

- (a) the statement of the result of the poll; and
- (b) the key to the sealed ballot box.

(3) Until the delivery of the ballot box to the person authorised by the District Returning Officer to collect it or, until the delivery of the ballot box by the Counting Officer to the office of the District Returning Officer, the Counting Officer shall ensure that the ballot box and other election materials are not tampered with and they shall be regarded as being in his custody.

92. Where a ballot box referred to in subsection (1) of section 91 or its content is lost or destroyed, the certified copy of the statement of the result of the poll referred to in subsection (2) of section 90, shall, on the oath of the Counting Officer or other polling station official, be accepted as representing the result of the poll at the polling station concerned.

Loss or destruction of sealed ballot boxes.

93. (1) Upon receipt of the sealed ballot box and other election materials referred to in section 91, the District Returning Officer shall—

Duty of District Returning Officer regarding counting of ballots.

- (a) not open the sealed packet containing the marked copy of the Register of Voters nor the sealed packets containing the counterfoils of the used ballot papers;
- (b) proceed, in the presence of the counting agents, if any, to verify the Ballot Papers Account, kept for the purpose, by comparing it with the number of ballot papers counted and rejected in accordance with sections 85 and 86 and the unused and spoilt papers in his possession; and
- (c) reseal each packet after examination.

(2) The District Returning Officer shall prepare a statement on the result of verification in form B of the Seventh Schedule showing the number of ballot papers rejected and shall, on request by a counting agent, allow him to copy the statement.

94. (1) Upon receipt of the statement of the result of the poll from all the polling stations located in the district, the District Returning Officer shall compile a summary of all the statements of the results from the polling stations concerned and certify as many copies as may be required of each summary to the Regional Returning Officer showing the number of votes cast for each constituency candidate or, as the case may be, each candidate in any other election held on the same day.

Certificate of result by District Returning Officer.

(2) Certified copies of the summary compiled under subsection (1) shall be supplied to observers or counting agents present at the office of the District Returning Officer.

(3) Upon receipt of the copies of the summary of results compiled under subsection (1) by each of the District Returning Officers in the electoral area, the Regional Returning Officer shall compile a summary of all the results received from the District Returning Officers and shall supply certified copies of his summaries to the National Returning Officer and any observers or counting agents present.

(4) Upon receipt of the summaries referred to in subsection (3), the National Returning Officer shall cause those summaries to be tallied and computed and shall at the end forthwith declare the result of the election or elections as follows:—

- (a) in the case of an election of the ordinary members of Parliament, the number of votes cast for each constituency candidate; and
- (b) in the case of the election for a President held the same day, in the manner prescribed in section 52, and ensure that the statements of the result of the polls and the sealed packages containing the voting papers and all other documents relating to the election, including all forms whether used or not, are securely kept by the Electoral Commission.

Publication of result.

95. As soon as may be after the National Returning Officer has declared the result of the election or elections under subsection (4) of section 94, the Electoral Commission shall publish the results so declared—

- (a) in the case of the election of the ordinary members of Parliament, by Government Notice and in any other manner as he may think fit; and

(b) in the case of an election of a President, in the manner prescribed in section 53.

96. (1) Where, in this Act, any act or thing is required or authorised to be done in the presence of the polling agents or counting agents, the non-attendance of any agent or agents at the time and place appointed for the purpose, shall not, if the act or thing is otherwise duly done, invalidate the act or thing done. Non-attendance of agents not to invalidate acts etc.

(2) Upon the determination of any legal proceedings arising in connection with an election under this Act, the High Court shall, if a Returning Officer is a party to the action, certify whether or not the proceedings result from an act or omission of the Returning Officer done otherwise than in the bona fide performance of his duty under this Act.

97. No person who has voted at an election shall, in any legal proceedings arising out of the election, be required to state for whom he voted. Secrecy of voting.

(5) A trial before the Election Offences Court shall be by summary procedure and bail shall be at the absolute discretion of the Court.

(6) All trials by the Election Offences Court shall be by judge alone and shall be concluded not later than six months after the establishment of the Court under this section.

(7) A person convicted of an offence under this Act may appeal to the Court of Appeal.

PART XIII—ELECTION PETITIONS AND CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

Questions as to elected members of Parliament to be determined by High Court.

138. (1) All questions which may arise as to the right of a person to be or remain a member of Parliament shall be referred to and determined by a Judge of the High Court on a petition presented by a voter and in accordance with the procedure prescribed under section 162 for the trial of an election petition.

(2) Where the question to be decided concerns the right of a person to remain a Member of Parliament, the Court shall certify its decision in writing to the Speaker and the Electoral Commission and where the High Court has decided that a person is not entitled to remain a Member of Parliament that person shall then cease to be a Member of Parliament.

Election valid unless questioned within twenty-one days of publication of result.

139. (1) Every election not called in question within twenty-one days after the publication of the result in the Gazette, shall be deemed to have been to all intents a good and valid election.

(2) No election petition founded on acts amounting to an offence under Part X or Part XI shall be brought unless those acts occurred between the last day appointed for the delivery of nomination papers notified under section 59 and the time of the day at which the result of the election is declared under section 94.

Presentation of election petition.

140. (1) A petition complaining of an undue return or undue election of a Member of Parliament or a member of a local council, in this Act called an election petition, may within twenty-one days from the date of the publication of the result of the election in the Gazette be presented to a Judge of the High Court by any one or more of the following persons:—

- (a) a person who voted or had a right to vote at the election to which the petition relates;
- (b) a person who claims to have had a right to be returned or elected at the election; or
- (c) a person who alleges himself to have been a candidate at that election.

(2) A person presenting an election petition shall forthwith deliver a copy of it to the Electoral Commission.

141. (1) Every election petition shall be tried by a Judge of the High Court in open court. Trial of election petition.

(2) During the trial of an election petition, the High Court may order—

- (a) the inspection and production of any rejected ballot papers;
- (b) the opening of a sealed packet of counterfoils of used ballot papers; or
- (c) the inspection of any counted ballot papers; but in making and carrying into effect the order, care shall be taken that the way in which the vote of a particular person has been given shall not be disclosed until it has been proved that his vote was given and the vote has been declared by the High Court to be invalid.

(3) At the conclusion of the trial, the High Court shall determine whether the person whose return or election is complained of was duly returned or elected, or whether the election was void, and shall certify that determination as provided in subsection (2) of section 136 where the question decided concerns an election to Parliament and where the election concerns an election to a local council, the High Court shall certify its determination to the Electoral Commission and to the Minister responsible for local government.

Proceedings to have priority of hearing.

142. Election petitions and proceedings in the High Court taken under section 138 shall, in respect of the right to priority of hearing by the Court, enjoy, precedence over all other civil proceedings other than those which are part- heard.

Non-compliance with Act.

143. No election shall be invalid by reason of non-compliance with this Act if it appears to the High Court that the election was conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in this Act or that the non-compliance did not affect the result of the election.

Privilege, certificate of indemnity.

144. (1) A person called as a witness in proceedings in the High Court under this Part, shall not be excused from answering a question relating to an offence at, or connected with, an election on the grounds that the answer to the question may incriminate or tend to incriminate him, or on the grounds of privilege; but-

- (a) a witness who answers truly all questions which he is required by the Court to answer shall be entitled to receive a certificate of indemnity under the hand of the presiding Judge stating that the witness has so answered; and
- (b) an answer by a person to a question before the Court shall not, except in the case of any criminal proceedings for perjury in respect of the evidence, be admissible in proceedings civil or criminal in evidence against him.

(2) When a person has received a certificate of indemnity in relation to an offence disclosed by answering a question which he was required to answer by virtue only of subsection (1), and any legal proceedings are at any time brought against him for that offence, the High Court having cognizance of the case shall, on proof of the certificate, stay the proceedings and may award to that person such costs as he may have been put to in the proceedings.

145. (1) An appeal shall lie to the Court of Appeal from the determination of the High Court upon an election petition, or a proceeding of the High Court taken under section 138 at the suit of a party to the petition or proceedings, and the decision of the Court of Appeal on the appeal shall be final to all intents and purposes. Appeal from High Court.

(2) Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary, the Court of Appeal shall not entertain an appeal under this section unless notice of the appeal has been given within fourteen days of the determination in question.

(3) At the time of filing the notice of appeal, the appellant shall give security for the payment of all costs, charges and expenses which may become payable by him to any witnesses summoned on his behalf or to a respondent, in an amount and given in the manner, as the Court, may order; and in the event of a failure to comply with the order, no proceedings shall be heard on the appeal.

146. (1) If the High Court determines that a candidate returned as elected was not duly elected and that the election was void, then the candidate's seat shall become vacant from the time of the notice of decision of the High Court and if notice of appeal from that decision has been given within fourteen days, the seat shall remain vacant for the period until the determination of the Court of Appeal is given on the appeal or the appeal is abandoned. Effect on election return of notice of appeal.

(2) Where the question to be decided by the Court of Appeal concerns an election to or the right to remain a member of Parliament, the Registrar of the Court of Appeal shall certify the decision in writing to the Speaker and the Electoral Commission.

(3) Where the High Court has determined that a candidate was duly returned or elected, or that the election was void, and no notice of appeal has been given against that determination within fourteen days, or where on appeal the Court of Appeal has determined that a candidate was duly returned or elected, or that the election was void, then the Speaker shall publish by notification in the Gazette whether the candidate whose return or election is questioned is duly returned or elected or whether the election is void.

(4) If the election is declared void, another election shall be held.

Election offences may void election.

147. Where on an election petition or in a prosecution for an election offence under this Act, it is shown that the offence committed in reference to the election for the purpose of promoting or procuring the election of a person has so extensively prevailed that it may be reasonably supposed to have affected the result, his election, if he has been elected shall be declared void by the court in addition to any other penalty that may be imposed by the court.

PART XIV — ELECTION CAMPAIGN PERIOD

Electoral Commission to declare election campaign period.

148. (1) The Electoral Commission shall, after the close of nominations and after consultation with registered political parties and candidates contesting elections, determine and declare by Government Notice the period when campaigning by candidates and political parties may begin and end.

(2) The Commission may, in its discretion, declare different periods for election campaigns for different offices.

Election campaign materials.

149. (1) The Electoral Commission shall, after publication of the campaign period pursuant to section 148 and after consultation with registered political parties and candidates prepare and publish by Government Notice a campaign calendar of events including public rallies, public meetings and public processions to be held by political parties and independent candidates.

(2) The Electoral Commission shall for the purposes of ensuring the smooth co-ordination of a demonstration or procession and the maintenance of the peace and public order, during an election campaign liaise with the Inspector-General of Police and in the case of campaign activities in the Provinces, notify the Paramount Chief and other local councils as the Commission may think necessary.

(3) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prohibit a political party from conducting a meeting, organisational activity or publishing a book or other material in connection with its normal activities as a political party.

Election campaign calendar.

150. (1) During an election campaign, candidates and political parties may, in addition to activities normally associated with election campaigns—

(a) publish books, magazines, brochures, pamphlets, flyers, posters, signs and other similar materials;

(b) make use of the press, radio, television and other media forms;

(c) carry out various political activities within the limits of the law.

(2) Every election campaign material referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) shall clearly state—

(a) the issuing candidate or political party, as the case may be; and

(b) the printer of the material.

(3) No person shall post banners, posters, placards, drawings, billboards or other similar material on public buildings, national monuments, religious institutions or on any private property unless the owner of that property gives his consent.

(4) A candidate or political party shall, notwithstanding any enactment to the contrary, be exempted from the payment of customs duty in respect of election campaign material which is imported and supported by a Certificate of Authorisation issued by the Electoral Commission.

(5) The Electoral Commission may, on application made to it by a candidate or political party wishing to import electoral campaign materials, issue to the candidate or political party, as the case may be, with a Certificate of Authorisation.

151. At the end of an election campaign period, all election campaign activities shall cease and the public media shall be at the disposal of the Electoral Commission to publicise information on procedures for voting at the elections. Publishing of information.

152. (1) Where a candidate or political party believes that his or its rights under this Part have been violated, the candidate or political party may lodge a complaint with the Electoral Commission. Complaints against violation of rights.

(2) The Electoral Commission shall, upon receipt of a complaint under subsection (1), take all necessary steps to ensure that the issues raised in the complaint are properly addressed and any fault or defect is rectified without delay.

Civic obligation of candidates and political parties.

153. Every candidate or political party shall, in an election campaign period—

- (a) respect and take into account the Fundamental Principles of State policy set out in Part II of the Constitution; and
- (b) carry out the campaign in keeping with ethical and moral standards and the respect due to the other candidates and political parties and the electorate of Sierra Leone.

Prohibitions during election campaigns.

154. No candidate or political party shall during the campaign period—

- (a) insult or defame another candidate or political party;
- (b) abuse or engage in the improper use of Government property for political propaganda purposes;
- (c) campaign in public offices or educational institutions during working hours or hours of instruction.

Code of election campaign ethics.

155. (1) The Electoral Commission shall prepare a code of election campaign ethics which it shall, at least thirty days before the beginning of election campaigning, publish by Government Notice and issue copies to each candidate and political party.

(2) The acceptance of the code prepared and issued by the Electoral Commission under subsection (1) shall be a condition for the acceptance of a candidate's nomination paper or the list of candidates endorsed by a political party, as the case may be.

156. (1) The management of the national radio or television shall, during an election campaign period, ensure that equal air time is given to each candidate and each political party on the national radio and television. Air time on radio and television.

(2) The management of the national radio or television shall, in pursuance of subsection (1), allocate a minimum airtime of thirty minutes to each candidate and political party during an election campaign period taking into account, the number of candidates and political parties making a request under subsection (3).

(3) A candidate or political party wishing to be given air time under subsection (1), shall for that purpose make a request in writing addressed to the management of the national radio or television, and the management shall only act upon the receipt of the request in writing.

PART XV—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

157. (1) The Electoral Commission may at an election accredit any group or institution to act as election observer. Power to accredit observers.

(2) No person shall observe an election unless that person has obtained prior accreditation from the Electoral Commission.

(3) The Electoral Commission may issue guidelines to observers involved in the electoral process.

(4) An accredited observer shall submit a written report to the Electoral Commission on its observation not later than three months after the declaration of results of the election or such earlier date as the Electoral Commission may specify in writing.

(5) A person who contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not less than ten million leones.

158. (1) A local or international organization may apply to the Electoral Commission for accreditation to observe an election in the manner determined by the Commission. Application for accreditation.

(2) The Electoral Commission may require further information in support of an application.

(3) The Electoral Commission may accredit an applicant to observe an election after considering the application, any further information provided by the applicant, and whether—

- (a) the accreditation of the applicant will promote conditions conducive to free and fair elections; and
- (b) the persons appointed by the applicant will—
 - (i) observe the election impartially and independently of any registered political party or candidate contesting that election;
 - (ii) be competent and professional in observing that election; and
 - (iii) subscribe to a Code of Conduct for observers issued by the Electoral Commission pursuant to this Act.

(4) Where the Electoral Commission decides to accredit an applicant, the Commission shall—

- (a) enter the applicant's name in a register of accredited observers; and
- (b) issue a certificate of accreditation in the applicant's name stating the period and other conditions of accreditation.

(5) Where the Electoral Commission decides not to accredit an applicant, the Commission shall inform the unsuccessful applicant in writing of its decision.

(6) The Electoral Commission shall maintain at its headquarters a register of accredited observers.

(7) Any person may inspect the register of accredited observers on payment of a prescribed fee.

(8) The Chief Electoral Officer may provide certified copies of extracts from the register on payment of a prescribed fee.

159. If an accredited observer fails to comply to a material extent with any condition of accreditation, the Electoral Commission may revoke its accreditation after having given reasonable notice of revocation to that observer.

Revocation of accreditation.

160. (1) An accredited observer shall—

- (a) in relation to the election for which it is accredited be entitled to attend at and observe all aspects of the electoral process including registration, voting, counting of votes and the determination and declaration of results;
- (b) have freedom of movement to, within and from the area or areas specified in the Certificate of Accreditation;
- (c) have a right to communicate freely with registered political parties and individual candidates contesting in the election, electoral officials, government functionaries, the media, civil society organizations and other relevant parties.

Rights and obligations of observers.

(2) Whilst observing an electoral process, the representatives of an accredited observer shall wear and visibly and conspicuously display their identification cards at all times.

161. (1) Every employee of the Electoral Commission shall perform his functions in a neutral and impartial manner and shall receive his instructions only from the Electoral Commission.

Obligation of impartiality.

(2) An employee of the Electoral Commission who contravenes subsection (1) and a person who causes that employee to commit the contravention shall each be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine of five hundred thousand leones or to imprisonment for a term of two years.

162. The Rules of Court Committee may make Rules for practice and procedure for election petitions under this Act.

Election petition Rules.

Pending petitions and appeals saved.

163. Nothing in this Act shall affect any proceeding pending at the commencement of this Act on any petition or any proceeding on appeal pending at the commencement of this Act relating to any petition and such proceeding or appeal may be proceeded with as if this Act had not been passed.

Electoral Commission's power to enlarge time.

164. The Electoral Commission may, where the circumstances so require, by order, enlarge or reduce the time prescribed in this Act for the giving of any notice or for the doing of any act or thing.

Power of Electoral Commission to prescribe additional forms, etc.

165. (1) For the purposes of its functions under this Act, the Electoral Commission shall have power to prescribe, in addition to the forms in the Schedules, such other forms as it may find necessary or expedient but such additional forms shall be consistent with this Act or anything that is to be prescribed.

(2) Any deviation from a form prescribed in the Schedules which does not affect its substance shall not invalidate the form in which the deviation occurred.

Regulations.

166. The Electoral Commission may, by statutory instrument, make regulations for giving effect to this Act.

Transitional.

167. Any act or thing done or made by the Electoral Commission prior to the commencement of this Act, shall if consistent with this Act, be deemed to have been done or made under this Act.

Repeals.

168. (1) The following enactments are hereby repealed:-

Act No. 1 of 2002. (a) the National Electoral Commission Act, 2002; and Act No. 2 of 2002. (b) the Electoral Laws Act, 2002.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), any rules, regulations, orders, notices, prescriptions and other instruments or directives issued under the repealed Acts and in existence immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall continue in operation until their expiration or until their express repeal or revocation or cancellation.

(3) All investigations, prosecutions and other legal proceedings, instituted or commenced under the repealed Acts and which have not been concluded before the commencement of this Act, shall be continued and concluded in all respects as if that Act had not been repealed.

SCHEDULES

FIRST SCHEDULE

PUBLIC ELECTIONS ACT, 2012

RULES AS TO THE ORDINARY RESIDENCE OF VOTERS (Section 15 (2))

1. The place of ordinary residence of a person is that place where he usually lives or which has always or generally been his home, or which is the place to which he intends to return when away from it.
2. Where a person usually sleeps in one place and has his meal or is employed in another place, his place of ordinary residence will be where he sleeps.
3. For the purpose of these rules it will be assumed that a person can have only one place of ordinary residence and that it cannot be lost.
4. Temporary absence does not cause a loss, and an absence of less than six months, or which is anticipated to be less than six months, will be regarded as temporary if the intention is to resume actual residence within that period.
5. Where after consideration of these rules in respect of an application for registration or objection thereto, there appears some doubt as to whether a person's ordinary residence is in one registration area or another, a Registration Officer may decide between such respective areas (and other matters being equal may take into account the probable convenience of the applicant) and his decision shall in such case be conclusive in respect of any application for registration or objection thereto.
