

CHAPTER 178.

NAVAL ESTABLISHMENTS.

ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS.

SECTION.

1. Short title.
2. Interpretation.
3. Declaration of naval establishment.
4. Landing places.
5. Entering and leaving a naval establishment.
6. Permits to enter a naval establishment.
7. Removal of persons from a naval establishment.
8. Arrest and search.
9. Obstruction.
10. Penalty.

CHAPTER 178.

NAVAL ESTABLISHMENTS.

(COLONY.)

15 of 1946. An Ordinance to Prohibit the Presence of Unauthorised persons within Her Majesty's Naval Establishments in the Colony.

[27TH JUNE, 1946.]

Short title 1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Naval Establishments Ordinance.

Interpreta- 2. In this Ordinance, except where the context otherwise tion. requires—

“naval establishment” means any area in the Colony to which this Ordinance applies in, on or near to which Her Majesty now or at any time hereafter has any dockyard, naval barracks, victualling yard, naval store-house, naval workshop, naval wireless station, arsenal, wharf or mooring.

Declaration of naval establishment.

3. The Governor in Council may by Order declare any area within the meaning of the definition in the preceding section to be a naval establishment for the purposes of this Ordinance.

4. (1) The Naval Officer in Charge of a naval establishment, which is accessible by water, may appoint particular places therein for the landing from boats.

Landing places.

(2) No boats, other than boats belonging to or hired for Her Majesty's Service, shall—

(a) come to any part of such naval establishment other than to an appointed landing place; or

(b) loiter on the water in or in the vicinity of such naval establishment.

(3) The owner or any occupant of a boat, which contravenes the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of an offence.

5. (1) No doors or other outlets other than the public gates shall be made in any part of the fence, wall or boundary demarcation surrounding a naval establishment without the permission of the Naval Officer in Charge thereof.

Entering and leaving a naval establishment.

(2) No person shall enter, attempt to enter, leave or attempt to leave a naval establishment except at an appointed landing place or through the public gates, or through any door or outlet permitted to be made under the immediately preceding sub-section.

6. No person other than a member of the Royal Navy on duty or resident within a naval establishment or a constable on duty shall enter, attempt to enter, or be therein unless he is in possession of a permit issued by the Naval Officer in Charge thereof or an officer duly authorised by him in that behalf. A permit may be withheld, granted or revoked upon such conditions and subject to such restrictions as to period of validity or otherwise as the Naval Officer in Charge of the naval establishment or the officer duly authorised by him in that behalf may think fit. No person in possession of a permit shall be lawfully within a naval establishment unless he shall comply with every condition or restriction which may be imposed.

Permits to enter a naval establishment.

7. Without prejudice to any Court proceedings which may be taken against him, any person offending or suspected of offending against the provisions of sections 4 or 6 of this Ordinance may be removed from a naval establishment by any member of the Royal Navy on duty or by any constable on duty.

Removal of persons from a naval establishment.

Arrest and search.

8. Any person offending or suspected of offending against any of the provisions of this Ordinance may be arrested without warrant by any member of the Royal Navy on duty or by any constable on duty and may be searched and shall be brought as soon as possible before a Magistrate together with any thing found in his possession at the time of the arrest.

Obstruction.

9. Any person who wilfully obstructs any member of the Royal Navy on duty or any constable on duty acting in the exercise of the authority conferred upon him by sections 7 or 8 of this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence.

Penalty.

10. Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for one month or to a fine of £10 or to both such imprisonment and fine.