NOTING the "Prosecution Final Trial Brief", filed confidentially on the 22nd of November 2006;⁴

NOTING that all three Defence Final Trial Briefs have been filed publicly;

CONSIDERING that Article 17(2) of the Statute of the Special Court provides that "[t]he accused shall be entitled to a fair and public hearing, subject to measures ordered by the Special Court for the protection of victims and witnesses";

CONSIDERING that Rule 69(A) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence of the Special Court ("Rules") provides that "[i]n exceptional circumstances, either of the parties may apply to a Judge of the Trial Chamber or the Trial Chamber to order the non-disclosure of the identity of a victim or witness who may be in danger or at risk, until the Judge or Chamber decides otherwise";

CONSIDERING that the Prosecution Final Trial Brief has been filed confidentially with an explanation in the Court Management Filing Form that "the document contains identifying information with respect to witnesses who testified in closed session";

CONSIDERING that generally hearings should be conducted publicly but "this preference has to be balanced with other mandated interests", among them protective measures for victims and witnesses";⁵

CONSIDERING that it has been the practice of this Chamber that in those cases where witness protection issues arise, both confidential and public motions and responses may be filed;⁶

RECALLING further that the closing arguments of the Parties are scheduled to commence in open session on the 28th and continue, if necessary, on the 29th of November 2006, where the Parties, inter alia, "may respond orally to the other Party's written submissions";⁷
